Quick Comment:

Please seriously consider expanding facilities for officially approved overnight stopping areas for motor homes/campervans. All that's needed is a freshwater tap and normal street drain for grey water and perhaps a flushing toilet bowl or similar for emptying black (chemical toilet) waste. There are many more of these vehicles being used now and such facilities will bring extra trade to towns and villages, besides creating a nice Scottish welcome that is much more inviting than the abundance of 'no overnight parking' signs! Let's promote our fantastic country, not demote it!! Thanks.
