Quick Comment:

As a family we regularly visit Abbotsford and a main part of that enjoyment is the iconic views of the tweed valley. No development should be allowed to impinge on that - no amount of screening will suffice. Housing developments are eyesores in the countryside with all of the infrastructure that goes along with homes.

As the owner of a travel company Scotland's Trails, two of my clients favourite destinations are located in this prt of the Borders. We always include a visit to Abbotsford and many walk along the riverside path from Melrose to Abbotsford and back again.

The Home of Sir Walter Scott is a jewel in our cultural and tourism crown. Please relocate this development to somewhere more appropriate.
