Quick Comment:

This development will be a disaster for Abbotsford House and the wider area. My company brings many international business and leisure tourists to Abbotsford House. It's an iconic venue known around the world for its beauty, history and strong links to the literary world and Scotland's own history.

The peaceful, rural setting of Abbotsford, untouched for 100's of years will be severely disrupted and compromised by the construction work and delivery of this development.

Tourism in the Borders is a life line to many local businesses, so to put further barriers in the way of post Covid re-growth of this industry is not the way to go.
