I object to the proposed building of 45 houses opposite Abbotsford

I paid to go round Abbotsford in December, followed by a walk in their gardens and land then stayed for a meal.

Galashiels are lucky to have such a site of international importance adjacent to their town and it is a popular attraction to most visitors to the Borders..

To build houses opposite this site is reckless and irresponsible and would significantly detract from this irreplaceable and unique visitor and local place of great importance.
