Quick Comment:

I object to the proposal AGALA029 Netherbarns to build housing. The housing will block the outlook from Abbotsford and, as such, will have a global impact on an understanding of the perspective on Scotland in the literary work of Walter Scott, and a significant detrimental impact on his establishment of the global place of Scottish literature and culture. Scott is taught in universities around the world and his contribution to an understanding of our literature and culture should not be diminished in any way by confining the perspective from Abbotsford. The broad perspective contributed greatly to Scotland's place in world literature. Diminishing perspective, will diminish Scotland's cultural place in the world.
