Quick Comment:

As regular visitors from Yorkshire to the beautiful Scottish Borders, and strong supporters of Abbotsford, we are appalled to read that this development is being contemplated.

Abbotsford, including the house, its grounds and views, is a major attraction to the area which we and many thousands of other visitors look forward to enjoying every year.

Whilst the proposal attempts to sweeten the pill by talking of screening, it is obvious that this will not be adequate, especially during the winter months when, contrary to the proposal wording, Abbotsford is very much open to the public and needing support rather than desecration.

We are sure that those considering the application must be well aware of the extreme importance of Abbotsford to the Scottish Borders and Scotland itself. Please don't damage it irreparably - you have a solemn duty to vigorously protect such national treasures.

Good morning Trish, the proposal reference, we believe, is AGALA029 Netherbarns. Sorry to have missed that off.
