Quick Comment:

I wish to register my objection to the proposed housing development directly across the river from the world-famed and historic Abbotsford House. I consider this to be on a par with Highland Council's equally inappropriate housing proposal adjacent to the Culloden battlesite and Edinburgh Council's likewise inappropriate proposal for turning the Old High School building into a glitzy hotel. While would-be developers will always come up with radical proposals, the public depends on Councils' Planning Services to identify and turn down inappropriate proposals which cut across other major areas of public interest. ONCE SUCH MISTAKES ARE PERPETRATED, THEY CANNOT BE UNDONE.
