Quick Comment:

My concern is the possible effect the plan may have on the view from Abbotsford if 45 houses are allowed to be built opposite across the Tweed. I had the chance to visit the house in October between lockdowns and recall the inspirational importance of the view to Sir Walter Scott.

I appreciate the suggestion to plant a screen of trees to hid the new houses but these will take years to mature.

I know I am writing from 350 miles away but for a Scot living down south the preservation of the Scottish heritage is something to cherish.
