Quick Comment:

As a family we have stayed at the Abotsford for numerous years over the Christmas and New Year Period. My children have grown up welcoming the day in over the holidays to the beauty of this area of the Scottish Borders. The views from the house are unique and part of the Scottish Borders unparalleled beauty. The development of the site at AGALA029 Netherbarns will forever change this tranquil part of one of Scotlands history sites. It is akin to selling the family jewels. Leave it alone. It will be worth for future generations to come as once it is built on there is no going back.

I could not disapprove of this development in more stronger terms.
