Quick Comment:

I object to site AGALA029 Netherbarns.

I think it is heinous to build development that will undoubtedly disrupt the view and tranquility of Abbotsford. I'm shocked and incredibly sad that this development has made it to this stage. People use the estate to relax, exercise and escape. If this development is not stopped, mindfulness and learning sessions for Borderers who desperately need them - previously supported by the Scottish Government through HES funding - will take place with a soundtrack of diggers and a view of cheap housing instead of the gentle trickle of the Tweed and the beautiful colours of leafy woodland. The Scottish Government is supposed to be a champion of our national heritage, so I will be very disappointed if this is allowed to go ahead. Would you allow these houses to be built next to Melrose Abbey? Or on the Castle Esplanade? Please do not allow this development to go ahead.
