Quick Comment:

I wish to object to AGALA029 Netherbarns.

This is one of most sensitive sites in Scotland, directly opposite Abbotsford and forming an integral part of the experience of Scott's home for the many thousands of visitors each year.

The proposed screen of trees will take years to mature, and even then will not prevent the visual intrusion of the proposed houses.

There have been several developments in the neighbourhood of Abbotsford which are not necessarily detrimental to the unique site, but the Netherbarns scheme is a clear and substantial impairment. The Abbotsford Trust deserve support in their sensitive and imaginative preservation and presentation of Scott's home. This scheme should be decisively rejected.
