Quick Comment:

I have been a regular visitor to Abbotsford since the days of [REDACTED] with whom we used to have tea in the parlour with its view over the Tweed. I have been President of the Walter Scott Society and I feel passionately about the need to recognise his greatness and learn from him in thinking about the future of Scotland.

I urge the Council not to approve the proposal to zone for housing the land at Netherbarns. Whether or not screened by trees, it would destroy for ever the peace of the view across the Tweed from Abbotsford.

Please remember that once done, the damage cannot be undone and the members of the Council will be pilloried for wanton destruction of one of their greatest assets.
