What are your comments regarding this site?:

I wholeheartedly object to building on this land without a comprehensive public consultation. Proposals were rejected in the early 90s by a resounding 97+% of people.

Your public consultation from what I see has scarcely been made public and in some instances, you're asking people to make observations based on incorrect information provided by the council. For reference, look at the Scott Park documentation which indicates the councils intend to "use current grounds".

Not only is greenspace essential, the fact that it's in this particular part of town and is relatively flat is essential to all generations. Gala Hill is too steep for some people. The fields are out of bounds in Springtime and farmers generally dislike people using their land. Where else is there to go?

Please have a considered approach to building on either/or the Scott Park or the Gala Policies.

Thank You.
