Quick Comment:

In particular the Netherbarns AgALA029 development. I was appalled to hear from the Scottish National Trust in regard to the development of 45 houses adjacent to Abbotsford. Not only will it be a blot on a fantastic landscape the modest planting of saplings will do nothing to soft the view of the disastrous development for many many years to come.

Abbotsford has been visited over the years by thousands of people and is an integral part of the visit for the peace, tranquillity and delight of the view. This is especially important as a consequence of the pandemic and the absolute requirement for visitors to have the tranquil surroundings in which to recover from the past 12 months of emotional distress. I would concur with everything that has been put forward by the National Trust for Scotland which I have read in detail and I would urge you to reject the planning application

Yours, Peter G Jones
