Dear Sirs

No to the Netherbarns Housing Development (AGALA029)

I have been a holder of a Joint Friend Membership of The Abbotsford Trust for many years. During my membership and part of my visits I have been pleased to support the Trust in its various initiatives, to help preserve Abbotsford for current and of course future generations.

This house is one of the famous houses of the world, and during my visits I feel I am walking in the footsteps of Sir Walter Scott who designed and built the house, and of the paths I follow walking through the grounds.

It is a tragedy that we are even discussing a proposal to build forty-five houses on the land across the River Tweed from Abbotsford, in fact I object to any number of houses on that site.

This Jewel in the Crown of the Scottish Borders must remain untainted, and I am resoundly against any such development, and specifically the proposal AGALA029 Netherbarns.

Yours faithfully

Alan Stewart
