

14.1.21

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to object to proposal AGALA029 Netherbarus in the Local Development plan. My objections are the same as those raised by The Abbotsford Trust.

Furthermore, please bear in mind that in the age of Zoom, location matters less; quality of location matters more. One of Scotland's strangest suits is its cultural legacy to the World.

Walter Scott is a major part of this. If we want to be known; if we want to be visited; if we want to prosper, then our myth makers must be celebrated and their surroundings preserved.

In these dark days I foresee with foreboding a world, twenty or thirty years hence, where high paying jobs will only exist in many places. Heaven forbid. Protect Abbotston. Yours faithfully,

EDWARD HOCKNELL
