Quick Comment:

I would like to state my objection to the proposed development at Netherbarns.

It is baffling that the council continue to re-submit proposals to build here given their previous efforts have been knocked back several times and the reasons for this haven't changed.

As one of the biggest (if not the biggest) tourism draws to the region, every effort should be made to ensure nothing detracts from the experience of visiting Abbotsford.

Allowing a development such as the one proposed will permanently ruin the outlook from Abbotsford, which is part of its attraction.

The deteriorating tree line will only make this view worse as the years go by.
