Quick Comment:

I wish to object in the stongest possible terms to the proposed development AGALA029 Netherbarns near Abbotsford House. I was born within 2 miles of the site and have lived and worked all my life in Scotland. I have sold, since retiring , a number of copies of the Waverley Novels, many of which I have read, to people from all over the World. Walter Scott's books were regarded as the first historical novels and are part of the Romantic Movement which has had a huge influence on our culture. I am objecting to the development because the building of 45 houses nearby would ruin the cultural importance of this World famous heritage site. It would detract enormously from the huge economic benefits to the region by lessening the enjoyment of the thousands of tourists who come from all over the World to see the House. A line of trees will make no difference.
