Quick Comment:

The BRC has declared a Climate Emergency and is now be committed to it. This 10 year LDP does not anywhere address or even mention the overriding goal issue that major changes are needed and needed now. That is the essence of a Climate Emergency. Big changes need to be made in the next ten years and some of the policies outlines go against Government policy.

It is easy to assume that the BRC declaring a Climate Emergency was just a token gesture and I hope that they can show commitment by reconsidering the entire plan in the light of the alarming ongoing global situation.
