Quick Comment:

The proposed development of houses next to Abbotsford House is an astonishing, misguided decision based on short term thinking and a betrayal of our responsibilities to leave a cultural legacy this area can be proud of for the years ahead. The Scottish government promises to ensure a wellbeing economy delivered for the benefit of as many people as possible: this development benefits very few and scars the landscape around the precious estate of one of our cultural icons that we can currently all enjoy - that is the way it must remain.
