3. The Council's Environmental Health, Safety and Licensing Team will be asked to comment on the health and safety arrangements relating to your application for the grant of a licence. I have therefore enclosed a copy of the national licence conditions devised under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (Licence of Skin Piercing and Tattooing). To obtain a licence enabling you to practice within the Borders, the Council will require applicants to comply with all licence conditions as set. Their role is to review how you have implemented the conditions as relevant to your business.

To aid consistency, The Royal Environmental Health Institute of Scotland (REHIS) have produced a local authority implementation guide for the above legislation. Version 1.7 (the current version) is available for download from the following webpage:

<http://www.rehis.com/document/2014/05/scottish-licensing-skin-piercing-and-tattooing-working-group-may-2014-local-authority>

You should consult this document as part of your risk assessment review as it contains several model forms you may wish to adapt to meet your own requirements. Further information is also available from the following publication:

- Chartered Institute of Environmental Health: "Body art, cosmetic therapies and other special treatments" ISBN: 1 902423 80 1 published by Chadwick House Group Ltd June 2001.

As one of the Acts main objectives is to control the risk of blood born viruses in the workplace, a copy of the HSEs publication "blood born viruses in the workplace" is available from the HSE website. <http://www.hse.gov.uk/>

4. A site notice must be displayed at or near the premises which you propose to use, in a place where this can be conveniently read by the public, for a period of 21 days beginning with the date when you submit this application to the Council. Please use the attached style of notice.

At the end of the 21 day period, the attached Certificate must be completed and returned to the Council.

5. Please send the completed form, application fee and other documents to:

Licensing Unit, Regulatory Services - Legal and Licensing,
Scottish Borders Council, Council Headquarters, Newtown St Boswells TD6 0SA.
Telephone: 01835 826662; e-mail liquorandlicensing@scotborders.gov.uk not less than 3 months before the proposed commencement date of the licence.

Telephone: 0300 100 1800

The information we collect from you will include details such as your name, address, e-mail address, telephone number, date and place of birth.

For the purposes of this specific service, the personal data we require includes special category information about you (also known as 'sensitive personal data'), specifically health information (disability, allergies, fitness to operate), For taxi driver or private hire driver licence applications, we ask for and hold specific information relating to medical conditions and a full group 2 medical standards certificate is required.

In addition we also require details of any previous criminal convictions and previous licence information.

Why do we need this information?

Your information is being collected to allow Scottish Borders Council to administer the process of applying for licences under the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982.

We need to know the personal data requested on the application form in order to provide this service to you. If you do not provide this information then we will be unable to process your request for a licence. We will not collect any personal data from you that is not needed for this purpose.

The lawful basis for collecting your information in these circumstances is:

Compliance with legal obligation:

Scottish Borders Council is required to collect your information in order to carry out the function of providing licences in relation to the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982, which is a statutory function of a local authority.

Where we collect special category data this processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest for aims that are proportionate and which contain appropriate safeguarding measures.

What will we do with your information?

We will use your information to process your application for a licence. Depending on the type of licence, this will involve sharing your information as shown in the table below.

Type of licence	Who your information will be shared with
Skin piercing and tattoo operator	Police Scotland, Environmental Health and Scottish Fire and Rescue Service

Applications where valid objections or representations are made will be considered at meetings of the Civic Government Licensing Committee, which are open to the public however some business may be held in private. We are also required to publish information in licensing registers, which will include your name, address and type of licence. No special category data is included in the register.

When you do not provide information directly to us, we may receive it from other relevant organisations including other Council services, other Local Authorities or Police Scotland.

You should also be aware that your data will be stored on servers located within the United Kingdom. We will take all reasonable steps to ensure that your data is kept secure and more information on how we do this can be provided by contacting the Data Protection Officer.

How long will we keep your information?

We will keep your information for the length of time specified within our document retention schedules, and after this period it will be destroyed under secure arrangements. More information on our retention policy and procedure can be obtained from the Data Protection Officer if required.

Automated Decision Making

No automated decision making will take place.

Your Rights

You have the right to request access to any personal data held about you by the Council. You can also request that we restrict the use of your information or even object to any further processing. You can do this by contacting the Data Protection Officer using the contact details provided above. We will respond to your request within thirty calendar days.

For more information on your rights please visit our website <http://www.scotborders.gov.uk/DPYourRights> or if you would like a hard copy of this information, please contact us using the contact details provided above.

If you are unhappy with the way the Council has processed your personal data please contact the Council's Data Protection Officer. If after raising your concerns with the Data Protection Officer you remain dissatisfied you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
